AI Operator & Enablement Intern

NGUYEN HUU VINH PHAT

PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVE

I am applying for the AI Operator & Enablement Intern position at Filum.ai. With a solid foundation in information technology and systems thinking, I aim to act as a bridge between the product and customers, optimize the user experience, and help resolve issues quickly and clearly.

I am proactive, detail-oriented, and inclined to improve processes to reduce operational friction. My long-term goal is to become a professional who can support customers through data, process, and empathy.

FEATURED PROJECTS & EXPERIENCE

ROLE: TEAM LEAD

2024

Web Delivery Application Development Project

- Researched user needs, analyzed business requirements, and built an optimized ordering flow for the web app.
- Designed the UX/UI to be clear and fast, suitable for a real-time experience.
- Worked with the team to standardize the process and deliver the product on schedule.

ROLE: PROJECT MEMBER

2024

Professional E-commerce Website Design Project

- Studied online shopping behavior to propose product layouts and conversion touchpoints.
- Structured data logically to support content management and product update workflows.

ROLE: OPERATIONS TEAM LEAD

2025

MiaTown Entertainment Complex

- Analyzed service processes and real-world operations to propose customer experience improvements.
- Finalized standardized content and supported presentations and negotiation in a practical context.

ROLE: STORE MANAGER

2026

Vinh Ky Restaurant

- Coordinated staff, planned budgets, and maintained the store's daily operations.
- Used digital tools to track operations, manage orders, and support customer care.
- Standardized invoices and customer feedback to improve service quality.

KEY STRENGTHS

Prioritizes clear communication, stays focused on goals, and adapts easily to fast-paced environments.

Has a technology background that helps me understand products quickly and collaborate well with technical, operations, and customer-facing teams.

Enjoys working with processes and data while remaining flexible enough to handle real-world situations.
